

I am disheartened to find out that the Christian radio station K-LOVE may be forced off the air due to the introduction of a new broadcast service LPFM. Even more upsetting is that the LPFM feels that there is little value in a national service such as K-LOVE. Christian radio stations offer a value that far surpasses those of typical radio stations - it offers direction, hope, and true inspiration to many living or searching for God. K-LOVE does this. My wife and I personally benefit from their encouraging songs, teachings, and discussions. It is unfortunate how mainstream society continues to disrespect the very truths and principles that this nation was founded upon - God and His word. Continually our culture finds ways to eliminate God from the public freedom. This is yet another attempt to do so. The removal of these truths and the effects of doing so are clearly evident when one observes our society and it's direction. Fortunately there are still those who believe in the true foundation and have the courage to share it with others. K-LOVE does this and my request is sincere: Please do not remove them - or any other Christian radio station - from the air. There is nothing wrong with adding LPFM, but do not compromise this implementation with true value to it's listeners.
